

3/17/05

A5A – Material Release Order, will be generated by RCP for the release of RCP/S9W Material in store for shipment to a DRMO.

A5J – Disposal Release Order, will be generated by ICP and RCP for the release of RCP/S9W material in store for shipment to a DRMO.

ARJ – DDC response to the ICP/RCP A5J transaction, confirming the availability of the requested material quantity, ARK – DDC response to the ICP/RCP A5J transaction, indicating more than the requested quantity is available for the customer.

ARL – DDC response to the ICP/RCP A5J transaction, indicating less than the requested quantity is available.

ARA – DDC response to the RCP A5A transaction, indicating more than requested quantity is available for customer.

ARB – DDC response to the RCP A5A transaction, indicating less than requested quantity is available.

ARO – DDC response to the RCP transaction confirming the availability and release of material to the RCP customer.

D6A/B – Receipt transaction that will be used to change ownership from the ICP to the S9W account.

D8 – Document identifier for inventory adjustment transaction to inform the ICP/RCP that the DDC item quantity available is more than the ICP/RCP records indicate.

D9 – Document identifier for inventory adjustment transaction to inform the ICP/RCP that the DDC item quantity available is less than what the ICP/RCP records indicate.

POD – Proof of Delivery

POS – Proof of Shipment

SIGNAL CODE – a one digit code used to indicate where RCP Transfer, Donation, and Sales material is to be shipped, and who is to be billed for the material. The RCP will use the signal code to indicated to the DDC to stage the material via a pseudo DODACC. The RCP will use two single codes “A” and “K” when generating A5_ transfer, donations, and sales transaction to the DDC.

SC4401 – RCP will use to identify that the UIC of the National Sales Office as requisition generators (sales), from the Defense Reutilization and Marketing Service (DRMS).

SC4402 – RCP will use as a method of identifying that material movement is the result of a material transfer or donation.

UIC – Unique Identification Code